1. DCI Swearing-In Ceremony

25X1 The ceremony was conducted on 26 May at the Headquarters quadrangle and was attended by President Reagan, Vice President Bush, and a large number of dignitaries. Mr. Reagan made laudatory comments regarding both Mr. Casey and Judge Webster. Headquarters Security Division and the DCI Security Staff personnel, working closely with the Office of Logistics (OL), Secret Service, and Fairfax Police, provided a variety of security and related support activities to dignitaries, invited guests, and media representatives. OS and OL components were cited for contributing to the success of the ceremony which was conducted without incident. [redacted]

2. DDCI To Continue Serving

25X1 Mr. Gates has advised that he intends to continue serving as the DDCI and is looking forward to working closely with Judge Webster. Mr. Gates also mentioned that Judge Webster has no plans for any major personnel changes. [redacted]

3. Memorial Program

25X1 A memorial program commemorating Agency employees who have died in the line of duty was held in the Headquarters lobby on 27 May. This program, the first of what is to be an annual event, was attended by the DCI and was highlighted by presentations from the DDCI, Mr. Gates and the DDO, Clair George. [redacted]

4. Information Security Group Established

Effective 1 June, the Information Security Group (ISG) has been created within the Office of Security and will report to DD/PTS. [] has been appointed Chief, ISG effective 8 June, upon completion of duties at OIT. []

6. Memorial Service for William J. Casey

An employee memorial service was conducted on 2 June at the Headquarters quadrangle, honoring the memory and accomplishments of the late DCI, William J. Casey. The service, which was attended by Mrs. Casey, family members, and numerous past and present high-ranking Agency officials, featured opening remarks by Judge Webster and moving eulogies delivered by John A. Bross, a former OSS and Agency official, and Father Philip Dabney. Impressive performances by the Marine Corps Band and Color Guard added to the ceremony which was preceded by a private viewing of the DCI Casey portrait by Mrs. Casey, the DCI, and DDCI. The portrait is presently on display in the DCI portrait hallway. []
